The screenshot shows the eBay Store Template Designer. On the left is a preview window displaying a store's homepage with a banner for 'YOUR MOTOR'. A red box highlights this banner area. On the right, there are several sections for configuration. One section, 'Full-width banner', has a red box around its 'ON' toggle switch. Other sections include 'Theme Settings', 'Overall Store Settings' (with a color palette), and 'Home Page Settings' for various features like fixed banners, free-width banners, featured products, EazyGallery, and item listing settings.
