Introduction of Sales event + Markdown function and usage

1. Function Introduction
2. How to use it

1. Function Introduction

SoldEazy added new function 'Sales event + Markdown' which is the updated version of the original function 'Price Reduction Schedule Manager'. Its nature still is discount.

Markdown, it is to reduce the price of the selected product;

Sales event, it is to show all the discount products to the buyer in compilation form

When the seller creates the 'Sales event + Markdown' in SoldEazy and applies it to the product successfully, the buyer can go to the seller's store homepage and see the promotion entrance (generally have a palpable banner and title displaying)

2. How to use it

Go to Sell>Marketing&Promotions>eBay Promotion Manager and click <Create a new promotion> (Before creating a promotion, the new API must be in connected status)
